

Ruby Lianne Johnson

April 24, 1945 - July 20, 2017

Ruby Lianne Johnson, known to her friends and family as Lianne, after many years of numerous extremely painful chronic diseases and conditions, passed away on July 20, 2017. Lianne graduated high school from James Madison High in Vienna, Virginia. She then attended Radford College for two years before determining that her passion was accounting. She spent the next 40 years perfecting her accounting skills, working both in the private sector and for the Navy Department of the DoD as a Civil Servant. She loved animals, loving and taking care of several dogs in her adult life. As a young girl and into her teens she competed in horseback riding events. She was also a history buff and loved to read and watch historical books and documentaries.

She is preceded in death by her parents, William (Bill) R. Murray and Ruby Lianne Murray.

She is survived by her husband, Travis Johnson; sister and her husband, Melanie and Steve LaPorte; two brothers and their wives, Bill and Patty Murray, and Ted and Roxanne Murray; nieces Summer Murray and Michelle Murray; nephews Richard Jason LaPorte and Theodore James LaPorte, friends and her beloved dog, Peanut.

According to her wishes, Lianne will be cremated and no memorial services will be held at this time.
